EEBA Testimonies

Professor

Dr. Nopporn Cheanklin, M.D., MPH
Socioeconomics of Oriental Healthcare industry
Executive Director of Health Systems Research Institute
It's essential for the young generation to understand the changing of the global economic ecosystems and be equipped with the necessary knowledge and skill for their future career or further study. The faculty established the EEBA program to provide students a broad range of subjects to tackle challenging situations that they would be exposed to in the future. Building enthusiastic, young and smart economists is the ultimate goal of EEBA.

Alumni

Mr. Vittawin Veeravidhayanant, EEBA 7
Actor
(EEBA) courses give you the proper mindset and skills that teach you how to cope and manage in our society. Once you reach the intermediate level of the program courses, there will be a variety of major and minor subjects that you could choose from to match your own capabilities and business ideas. No matter what major you choose, it's always great results you will get!

Alumni

Mr. Panuwat Treeveeranuwat, EEBA 6
Multi-Business Owner, Founder & CEO of B.A.N.K. Enterprise Co., Ltd. and Car Colini; Co-Founder of Shippspace Co., Ltd.
EEBA is one of the best faculties in Kasetsart University. It is because every lecturer here is a veteran in the field of economics with PH.D. Degrees respectively and they will teach you new viewpoints and grounding experiences. If you are looking for a faculty that will not only give you the proper knowledge but also a good mindset about entrepreneurship, EEBA is suitable for you.

Current Student

Mr. Krit Amnuaydechorn, EEBA
Actor, EEBA Senior Student (4th Year)
I am currently a senior student at EEBA Kasetsart University. The environment here is unique from other faculties. Here, we are taught the abilities and right attitude we need to positively impact our standing in society as well as the plans for our future career.

Alumni

Mr. Ittimol Weeramongkolkul, EEBA 3
(Duke University, Master's degree 2017)
Business Strategy Manager, Google
(EEBA) equipped me with the right skill set for my future career path as well as practical learning opportunities that had set me up for a good start back in the day. Most importantly, the program connected me with lifelong friendships that I wouldn't trade anything for. I would recommend the program for anyone particularly interested in Economics and the practical implication aspects of the subject. You won't be disappointed here!

Professor

M.L. Kuntornrat Davivongs, Ph.D CFA FRM
Economics of Venture Capital
Successful entrepreneurs are the foundation for the economic strengthening of the country. Statistics show that only 30% of businesses survive in their tenth year. Lack of business management skills is one of key factors for failure.

EEBA program provides courses that build-up all knowledge and skills necessary for entrepreneurs to be successful in their business with a mind of public consciousness. The courses not only suit entrepreneurs, but are also good for anyone who needs to prepare themselves for the future.

Professor

Professor Matthew P. Downs
Economics of Law
EEBA blends economic principles with many facets of business development and business management. Students gain the theoretical knowledge and practical technical skills necessary to start-up a new business venture, assess the risks of innovations, or develop a strategic business plan that can improve the operations of an existing business. Graduates are qualified to launch rewarding careers or to run their own innovative businesses. Each year, a large number of our recent grads pursue postgraduate degrees abroad from highly regarded universities in the UK, Australia, Germany, the USA, China, or other locations

B.Econ Testimonies

Professor

Dr. Navarat Temsumrit
(University of St. Gallen, Switzerland)
Financial Institutions and the Economy
B.Econ offers you a rich understanding of the economic theoretical background with a holistic thinking framework. You will fully find supportive faculty staff and a friendly environment helping you to shape your bright future here.

Alumni

Ms. Pitchada Limsuwan, B.Econ 1
Digital Media Planner, YDM Thailand
B.Econ taught me critical and analytical thinking skills that productively enhanced my learning curve. I loved my university life because I was in such a good environment with helpful teachers, staff and friends. I am very thankful to the faculty for the valuable guidance that has helped me become what I am today. I am really proud to be part of the B.Econ family!

Alumni

Ms. Thitinan Saiprapakorn, B.Econ 3
Plan and Policy Analyst, Secretariat of the Cabinet, Government House of Thailand
For me, the most impressive and memorable experience of studying here is that B.Econ gave me the chance to study abroad in Germany with KU scholarship assistance. I'm grateful for all the opportunities I've had here. Moreover, with supportive staff members, amazing professors and classmates, I'm glad to say that my time at B.Econ was an incredible learning experience from start to finish.

Alumni

Mr. Tanapol Chanyanit, B.Econ 1
Digital Marketing Officer and Assistant Warehouse Manager (Family Business)
I believe that the B.Econ program has an effective teaching system. My favorite subjects are Financial Marketing Theory, History Economic Thought and Marketing Business Economics. Along with the courses taught in English, its focus on consistent learning and development of necessary academic skills was textbook and very detailed--still applicable to today's economic principles.

Professor

Asst. Prof. Thanasin Tanompongphandh, Ph.D. Applied Economics and Management (Cornell University)
Investment in Global Market for Entrepreneurs (EEBA); Economics of Real Estate (B.Econ)

With the classroom becoming more like a playground for creativity, I used group projects to challenge student's intellectual capacity to learn and to build their leadership and teamwork skills at the same time.

Alumni

Mr. Pit Jongpaisan, B.Econ 1
Currently pursuing a Master's Degree in Business Analytics Management at Xi'an Jiaotong Liverpool University, China
Economics is with us everywhere. It can also be learned anywhere, however B.Econ does not just teach you simply the hard skills required but also the strong foundation that you will not find elsewhere. Whether it was the exchange program that gave me the chance to study in the Netherlands or the cooperative project that I participated in with Japanese exchange students, everything in B.Econ are all openings and opportunities. Students here are well-prepared for their future career.

Alumni

Mr. Tanapat Manasampvong, B.Econ 1
Assistant Account Manager, dFusion Company

The fact that I attended and graduated from B.Econ has gained me great friendships along the way. I acquired the right knowledge from in-class lectures and extracurricular activities as well as advice from experienced professors--all of which has helped me efficiently in my life and career.
